SPECIAL NOTE: Just because the GAS HP rating may be higher than the engine you have these pumps will still work with your engine just by - 'not adjusting' the pressure to the pumps advertised maximum pressure. For example: If you need a lot of volume and not much pressure you could run the 10.0 GPM Pump with a 13 HP engine but only setting the pressure to 1,450 PSI or a 5.6 GPM Pump on that same engine could produce 2,500 PSI. Call with questions - it really is easy to do.
